As things calm over the month of August we wish all our readers an enjoyable summer. Stay safe on our roads and keep a close eye out for all the events that are coming your way as we move into Autumn.

Rambling House: Cranavane Holy Well Committee will host a rambling House in the Spellman Hall Kildavin on Thursday August 22nd at 8pm. It will be a night of music song and storytelling. Admission will be free. Traditional refreshments will be served.

Just come to watch but if you want to participate you are more than welcome.

Video Project. Cranavane Holy well Committee have completed filming for their digital recording project funded by the National heritage Counsel. Two and half hours of footage is now being reviewed by committee. The final edited video will be available for public viewing in the next couple of months. It features many well-known local faces and commentary will be done by Hollywood actor Stephen Rea.

Perhaps the editors' cuts can also be made available

Culture Night: September 20th will see the Veteran Players host another night of music song and story in the Spellman Hall Kildavin. All are welcome both audience and participants Admission is free. Refreshments will be served.

Veteran Players Committee. Tom Doyle, Enda Smyth, Jim Treacy, Carmel Gibson, James Whelan, Luke Hayden , Mgt Doyle

Pod Cast:The Current edition of the Podcast Chatterbox Y21 will be available this week beginning August 5th. It is available where ever you get your podcasts and on the Community facebook pages and website and the Clonegal Kildavin Veteran Players Facebook Page. This edition features Joe Byrne a well known figure in farm and community circles.

Publication: Clonegal Kildavin Veteran Players have commenced compiling their next publication which is a reproduction of our local Newsletter produced twice yearly between 1968 and 1974, There are plenty of references to people and events familiar to many. There will be a very limited number so keep an eye and ear out.
