Have you ever googled yourself?

Do you find accessing and using web searches challenging? Are you overwhelmed by Technology? If yes, a KCETB funded programme will commence on Monday October 14th in the Spellman Hall Kildavin at 7,30pm . The programme is intended to help participants carry out web searches with a focus on finding out information on their own and their community's history. The programme is free and will last for six weeks and all are welcome, Devices will be provided so places are limited. To register ring Mgt @)0878380018 before 3pm on Monday October 14th.

We are back. Exercise Classes: will resume in Spellman Hall Kildavin on Thursday October 17th at 8pm. Classes delivered by Paul Kelly. They are free. All are welcome. Classes are suitable for those who are novices in the world of exercise and of course all who want to pick up from where we left off last year.

Pickleball. Is one of the world's fastest growing sports, suitable for all ages. Clonegal Kildavin Veteran Players have received funding for pickleball equipment. It will be set up in the Spellman Hall Kildavin on Sunday October 20th at 2pm just to experiment with initially. Anyone interested in sharing in "trying it out" are welcome to come along Hollywood comes to Kildavin: The Clonegal Kildavin Veteran Players will host a showing of the Cranavane Holy Wells Committee's film "Our Heritage The Ancient Parish of Barragh" in the Spellman Hall Kildavin on Saturday November 2nd at 8pm. Stephen Rea the Hollywood actor narrated the production and many of your friends and neighbours feature in it. You will also learn a lot about the rich history and heritage of the area. The event is free. Refreshments will be served.

Memory Wall Commemorations will take place again this year. The first will be in the Spellman Park Kildavin at 2pm on Sunday November 17th at 2pm. The following Sunday the ceremony will be in the Ben Mullhall Memorial Park on Sunday November 24th at 12 noon. Anyone wishing to have their loved ones commemorated on the wall in either venue, please contact any member of the Clonegal Kildavin Veteran Players Committee well in advance of the ceremonies. The cost is a once off €50. Almost one hundred families are already commemorated on these walls so come along to help those families remember their loved ones.

Publication: Finishing touches are being put to the reproduction of some editions of the Parish Magazine "The Call" produced between 1968 and 1974. They contain interesting accounts of life lived in the community in this period. Many of you will recognize, names and events mentioned. Look out for its launch.

Podcast: Clonegal Kildavin Veteran Players Podcast Chatterbox Y21 is as always available. You can listen wherever you get your podcasts or on Clonegal Kildavin Veteran Players Facebook Page, Clonegal Kildavin Community Website Facebook Page and Clonegal Kildavin Website.
