Interesting Facts: Did you know that if you are experiencing financial difficulties the state provides a free support service. The Money Advice and Budgeting Service MABS They have a helpline opened between 9am and 8pm Monday to Friday 0818072000. You can also make an appointment to meet an advisor at their offices at 72D Tullow Street Carlow via the same number. Just one of the options open to clients is where you owe €35,000 or less, do not own any property and have a car worth less than €5000 there is an automatic entitlement to have that Debt written off. Mabs also has access to a Hardship fund provided by your electricity providers to deal with people who experience difficulties dealing with electricity and gas bills.

Dáil Eireann. As we prepare to elect the 34th Dáil one of two houses of Our Oireachtas (Parliament) it is worth reminding ourselves of it's origin. The Dáil was first formed on 21st of January 1919 in Dublin by 69 Sinn Féin MPs elected in the 1918 United Kingdom general election. They had won 73 seats of the 105 seats in Ireland, with four party candidates (Arthur Griffith, Éamon de Valera, Eoin MacNeill and Liam Mellows) elected for two constituencies.
